

Your wedding is the most special day of your life. You are going to be united with the love of your life for ever. Wouldn't you like to make this day extra-ordinary? Wouldn't you wish that the memories of your wedding day last for several years to come? If the answer is yes, hire a wedding marquee. A wedding marquee would make your day marvellous and would offer you, as well as your guests, timeless memories.

The best part about marquee wedding in Ireland is that you can choose to have your wedding reception at some of the most beautiful and picturesque locations in Ireland. You can hire a wedding marquee and get it installed on a beach side, or on a private farm, or a large country home. You may also choose an aesthetically appealing garden or public lawn for your wedding party. There is no need to choose a dull and boring conventional party hall or a hotel banquet.

With the wedding marquees available in several beautiful designs and styles, there are endless possibilities to decorate your wedding marquee. You can have the classic pavilion style wedding marquee or go for Chinese pagoda style marquee or clear span framed marquee.

Choose the size of the wedding party marquee hire depending on the number of your guests and how you want your floor plan to be. If you want the floor plan to be large and spacious, go for larger wedding marquee. The large wedding marquee can accommodate your other wedding venue needs as well, like bar arrangement, dance floor, stage for singing choir or wedding magicians, and so on.

This is not all. Marquee wedding hire in Ireland would let you add a personal style to your wedding decoration. You can have free flowing silk drapes in the marquee and chandeliers hanging from the marquee ceiling, candles or lights at entrance and on every table, beautiful flower arrangements, and starry effects all over the dance floor. Whatever you have always dreamt of having on your wedding, marquee wedding would realise all that. You are only limited by your own imagination and creativity.
